Our gifting firms provide specialized motivation services for clients.

Hi, I’m Matthew Reid, the founder of Keller Gifts in Angier, NC. Our name honors my great-great-grandmother, Keller Austin-Smith, but my heart for gifting comes from my grandmother, Mickey. Growing up, I was always the official family "gift distributor" at Christmas, a tradition that grew into a lifelong passion. Recognizing this lifelong calling, my father and my close friend, David, asked a simple question: "Why not turn your passion for gift-giving into a business?" That spark of encouragement was the beginning of my journey with Keller Gifts, where we turn everyday giving into a meaningful gift.

Spread the love and Joy of Gifts

Gift-giving can give people hope in building relationships. Keller Gifts is the vision that was given to me. I think Keller Gifts will be great for everyone. For me, the joy of giving and helping others at that moment when someone smiles with happiness is basically to help people find the best gifts for anybody who needs help.
"Inherited Will, Destiny, and The Dreams of the People. As long as People continue to pursue the meaning of freedom, these things will never die!"
